

REGERINGSKANSLIET

Ministry for Rural Affairs
Sweden

Responsible Agricultural Investments in Developing Countries: How to Make Principles and Guidelines Effective ?

25 March, 09.00 - 11.30, Jakobsgatan 24, Stockholm

- 08.45 - 09.00 Coffee
- 09.00 - 09.15 The Government's view on the importance of responsible agricultural investments
Magnus Kindbom, Chair of the Swedish FAO Committee and State Secretary at the Ministry for Rural Affairs'
- 09.15 - 09.25 Swedish International Development Agency work with land investments and land rights
Margareta Nilsson, Programme Specialist – Natural Resources, Dep. for International Organization and Thematic Support, Sida.
- 09.25 - 09.55 What is the current status on large-scale agricultural investments from a global perspective
Madiodio Niase, Director of the International Land Coalition
- 09.55 - 10.20 The challenge of making agricultural investments sustainable
Bo Göransson President of board of ABBBA, former GD Sida and Kenya Ambassador
- 10.20 - 10.30 Break
- 10.30 - 10.50 How to make principles and guidelines for responsible agricultural investments effective.
Presentation of the Swedish FAO Committee discussion paper
Kjell Havnevik, Independent Researcher
- 10.40 - 11.30 What is the way forward and what role can different Swedish actors play in securing responsible agricultural investments? What are the current knowledge gaps? What are the lessons learned?
Panel Discussion

Moderator: Melinda Fones Sundel, Senior Advisor at SIANI